Everything you need to know about your trip in Pafos

You said “Pafos”?

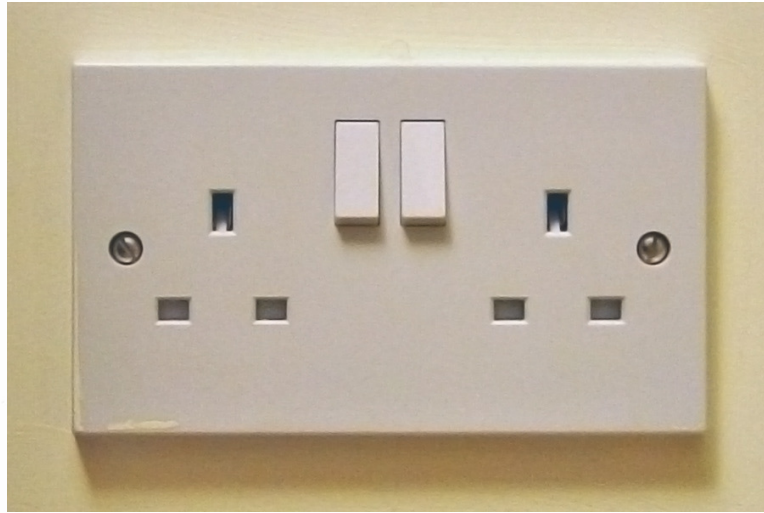

- Pafos is located on the southwest coast of the Mediterranean island of Cyprus.
- It has several sites related to the cult of goddess Aphrodite, whose mythical birthplace was at Old Paphos (Kouklia).
- Pafos is included in the official UNESCO list of cultural and natural treasures of the world's heritage for its ancient ruins
- Paphos European Capital of Culture for 2017

Important!

Also, don't forget!

Power plugs and sockets are of type G. This type is of British origin.

So don't forget your power plug travel adapter!

You arrived!

Let's go for a new adventure!

Guidelines from Larnaca Airport

There are 4 options:

If you go for Option 1

Careful! The two parts of the route are done by two different bus operators, so you need to change bus at Limassol.

Total trip duration: 3 hours is an average estimate

Total cost: 13€ (9€ from the Airport to Limassol and 4€ from Limassol to Paphos)

Directions:

- First, you get your tickets from the bus stand at the Arrival's Area near the designated bus exit. The receptionist there will give you all the necessary information for the trip. It is also necessary to prebook. Call Kapnos Airport Shuttle at 77771477 or email info@kapnosairportshuttle.com
- Approximately 15 minutes before the departure time, the bus driver will announce that you can get on the bus and he will help you with your language. The trip from Larnaca Airport to Limassol takes about 50-60 minutes.
- You arrive at Agios Georgios Havouzas Church in Limassol where you will get the bus to Pafos.
- There will be some waiting time at Agios Georgios Havouzas depending on the departure time of the bus.
- The trip for Limassol to Pafos takes about 50 minutes.
